

INTRODUCTION TO COMPETENCY-BASED LEARNING FOR TEACHERS NEW TO CBL

This 3-part, in-person workshop is designed for new teachers, alternative certification teachers, and experienced teachers looking to deepen their understanding of competency-based learning. The workshop is based on the Aurora Institute's definition of Competency-Based Learning and will cover student agency, performance assessment, systems of support, feedback cycles, active learning strategies, and equity.

3 In-Person Sessions

Thursdays from 8 am-2:30 pm

March 27, 2025

April 17, 2025

May 15, 2025

NH Audubon McLane Center

Concord, NH

$600/person

Includes Lunch

BENEFITS OF ATTENDING

- Explore CBL key principles and practices
- Establish shared understanding of CBL, taking a deep dive into each of the seven design principles
- Facilitate the integration of CBL design principles into current practices
- Collaborate with other educators about insights, challenges, and successes

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER FOR INTRODUCTION TO CBL FOR TEACHERS NEW TO CBL

For more information, email NHLI.

NHLI Facilitator:

Bari Boisvert

Director of Student-Centered Learning

NHLI Facilitator:

Ann Hadwen

Director of Educator Development and Coaching

New Hampshire
Learning Initiative