

ENGAGING STUDENTS THROUGH PROJECT-BASED LEARNING

This three-day, in-person workshop on Project-Based Learning (PBL) or project-based instruction is a student-centered teaching method that encourages learning through engaging, real-world, curriculum-related questions or challenges.

3 In-Person Days

Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday

June 24, 25, and 26, 2025

9 am–3 pm

NH Audubon McLane Center

Concord, NH

$600/person

Includes Lunch

Benefits of Attending This Workshop

- Develop units using project-based instructional models
- Develop project-based and career connected management tools for students
- Learn Agile Scrum for projects
- Embed interdisciplinary practices in project design

Students Engage in Challenges That:

- Activate 21st Century Skills
- Guide them to take independent approaches to deliver a product
- Require them to apply and transfer competencies

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER FOR ENGAGING STUDENTS
THROUGH PBL

Three SNHU graduate credits are an option for full participation in Engaging Students Through Project Based Learning at a discount rate of $195/credit (total of $585).

Enrollment and payment deadline is June 23, 2025.

Click here to register and pay for the graduate credits after you have registered for the workshop.

NHLI Facilitator

Bari Boisvert

Director of Student-Centered Learning